

EXECUTIVE CHEF

MICHAEL RIZZO

WANTS TO SHARE A RECIPE WITH YOU!

New York Cheesecake

This recipe might seem daunting but rest assure it is very simple to make.

Chef's Tip: Use a 9" spring form pan. Wrap in aluminum foil. This prevents water from leaking into the cake while baking. Serve with fresh berries if you wish.

We invite you to check out the Big Red Kitchen page on our website for this cheesecake and other great recipes. Don't forget to make plans to dine with us. Keep an eye out for our new spring menus beginning on April 4th!"

Spring menus are in!

Look out for Lemon themed dessert bars, spring pastas featuring braised lamb, and fresh yogurt and garden berry parfaits!

We can't wait to see what's on your buffet for your next private event!

Please contact Danielle Salera for more information, availability, and menus at D.Salera@cornellclubnyc.com or 212.692.1376.

NEW YORK

A message from the General Manager

Spring is here and with it the buzz of New Yorkers, new graduates, and tourists alike. Members continue to find our relaxed work areas in the Tap and Grill, Business Center, and library the ideal locations to not only be productive, but social!

We're eager to welcome newly minted graduates to The Club in the weeks ahead. We'll be celebrating several commencement ceremonies for the Class of '23, and I know you'll join me in welcoming graduates from Cornell and our prestigious affiliate schools.

We make every effort to communicate club and city happenings to you across our platforms including the Enewsletter, dedicated emails, the newsletter, and The Club's app. As a reminder, our Bear Facts newsletter is in digital format and it can be found on our member home page and is also linked to the weekly Enews. If you haven't already, please download The Club's app and don't forget to take a moment to connect with us on social media! You can find us on Instagram, LinkedIn, and Facebook.

I hope you enjoy reading the spring edition of The Club Quarterly. We have quite a few programs including the new book club and some new additions to our popular walking tour series. As always, our private event rooms and guest rooms are available to you and your sponsored guests. Whether you are here for the day, or an extended stay, please take a moment to say hello!

Sincerely,
Craig Lasnier

THE SEMINAR BOOK CLUBWEDNESDAY, APRIL 26th 6:00PM

What's between a book club and a seminar? Join our group of literary enthusiasts and find out!

The Seminar Book Club meets once a month in the Big Red Tap & Grill. Serious fiction or non-fiction, both classics and newer works, will be chosen for literary and intellectual merit. Each book will be chosen by a "seminar leader" who will then lead the discussion.

Plan to meet up in the Big Red Tap & Grill, get a drink (and some food if you want!), and talk about the book, pushing both intellectual inquiry and having fun!

April 2023: The people attending the March Seminar Book Club meeting voted to read All The Beauty In The World by Patrick Bringley. Janie who suggested the book will be the seminar leader for the discussion.

ALL-IVY GLOBAL GROOVES GALA AT THE YALE CLUBFRIDAY, APRIL 28th 8:00PM-10:30PM

Shake your hips and take a spin around the globe with us at our Dance Around the World party! Whether you came to all of our dance classes or none at all, join us in the Grand Ballroom for a night of international rhythms as we celebrate the world through dance.

Grab your friends, come dressed to impress in your favorite formal attire, and move your feet with us. Don't worry if you aren't a seasoned dancer: some of your favorite instructors will make surprise appearances to keep you moving with confidence. And be sure not to miss some special performances throughout the night!

Travel through your taste buds with global snacks and sips, and bask in splendid company, buzzing energy, and dazzling dancing.

Tickets are $90.00 per person plus tax and service charge. Advanced registrations due by April 21st and at that point they will be considered final sale.

We want to hear from you!

What kind of events would you like to see offered by the Club?

Featured Program:Save the date!

The Cornell Club and the Cornell Northeast Corridor Office are partnering to welcome Cheyl Einhorn to The Club on May 24th at 6:00pm.

We invite you to come hear her talk about her new book Problem Solver.

Cheryl Strauss Einhorn '91

(College of Arts & Sciences)

founded Decisive, a decision sciences company that trains people and teams in complex problem solving and decision-making skills using the AREA Method. AREA is an evidence-based decision-making system that uniquely controls for and counters cognitive bias to expand knowledge while improving judgment. Cheryl developed AREA during her two decades as an award-winning investigative journalist writing for publications ranging from The New York Times and Foreign Policy Magazine to Barron's and The Stanford Social Innovation Review. Cheryl teaches at Cornell University and has authored three books Problem Solved, A Powerful System for Making Complex Decisions with Confidence and Conviction, about personal and professional decision-making, and Investing In Financial Research, A Decision-Making System for Better Results about financial and investment decisions. Her new book about Problem Solver Profiles, Problem Solver, Maximizing Your Strengths To Make Better Decisions, was published in March 2023 by Cornell University.

VIRTUAL: BLIND BARRELS WHISKEY TASTINGTHURSDAY, APRIL 20th 7:00PM

Blind Barrels is a first-of-its-kind blind whiskey tasting experience. Blind tastings are all about discovery, education, and removing brand bias; however, Blind Barrels focuses on craft whiskey and showcasing smaller American distillers who are making some amazing, innovative, and delicious products. These are the best brands you can't buy or try any other way. One of their whiskey wizards will moderate a fun and informative blind tasting that will include an education on mashbill, tasting stages and methods, and guesses on each whiskey (proof, mashbill, aroma and tasting notes, age stagement, brand).

*Use the code CORNELL at the following link to receive a discount on your purchase of the tasting box:
<https://blindbarrels.com/products/one-off-sample-box>*

Due to shipping, please place orders by April 12th to receive your box in time for the tasting.

SCHOOL ADMISSIONS WEBINAR SERIES:

Navigating Public and Private School Admissions: a 3-part series to guide families in middle and high school applications

One of the greatest challenges for families is ensuring the best education for their children at every stage. With the transitions to middle school and high school, families find themselves at a crossroad – which can be a unique opportunity for different, better options for their child. Where do families begin when they are considering a change of school for their children?

The Cornell Club of New York is ready with experts to help! Our speakers will share proven strategies for parents to support their children in school choices and applications, as well as key tips and guides to those considering applying out – whether to public or private schools.

Attendees are invited to register for any or all of the presentations.
