LECTURE AND POST PROGRAM DINNER

THE RISE AND FALL OF PROTESTANT BROOKLYN WITH GLENN ALTSCHULER AND STUART BLUMIN

In The Rise and Fall of Protestant Brooklyn, Stuart M. Blumin and Glenn C. Altschuler tell the story of nineteenth-century Brooklyn's domination by upper-and middle-class Protestants with roots in Puritan New England. This lively history describes the unraveling of the control they wielded as more ethnically diverse groups moved into the "City of Churches" during the twentieth century.

5:30pm reception; 6:00pm lecture, gratis. Advanced registrations required. Copies of The Rise and Fall of Protestant Brooklyn will be available for sale at the event.

Members and one guest per member are invited to dine at The Club with the speakers following the lecture. Please click here to access the post program dinner registration page.
